Guest Program to Cuba

October 9 - 14, 2017

www.professionalsabroad.org

Spend an exciting week in Havana where you will have opportunity to explore the “Gem of the Caribbean” at your desired pace. Enjoy breakfast and dinner alongside delegates, and have the freedom to eat lunch while out exploring the city. In lieu of scheduled activities, guests are encouraged to explore the city based on their individual interests. Cuba is filled with rich history, unique architecture, remarkable museums, incredible art, music, and more. It is recommended that you purchase a tour book to learn more about Cuba and its offerings. Consider the following to help get you started on your travel plans in Cuba...

Get acquainted with Cuba by exploring Old Havana, a UNESCO World Heritage Site and the heart of Havana’s colonial history. Learn about the Cuban Revolution at Museo de la Revolución, and admire the impressive Baroque style architecture of the Havana Cathedral. Lovers of music and art will find a piece of Cuba’s rich and creative culture in galleries, on street corners, and in many notable museums. Regardless of how you plan to spend your time, you will not be disappointed by the cultural treasures Cuba has to offer. The hotel concierge will be happy to give you additional suggestions and help you make necessary arrangements for your plans.
