 nola.gov/parks-and-parkways/parks-squares/jackson-square

Jackson Square is a historic park in the French Quarter. It was declared a National Historic Landmark in 1960 for its central role in the city’s history, and as the site where in 1803 Louisiana was made U.S. territory pursuant to the Louisiana Purchase.

The National WWII Museum
945 Magazine St, New Orleans, 70130
 www.nationalww2museum.org

The National WWII Museum, formerly known as The National D-Day Museum, is a military history museum located in the Central Business District. The museum focuses on the contribution made by the United States to Allied victory in World War II.

French Quarter
The French Quarter, also known as the Vieux Carré, is the oldest neighborhood in New Orleans. After La Nouvelle-Orléans was founded in 1718 by Jean-Baptiste Le Moyne de Bienville, the city developed around the Vieux Carré (“Old Square”), a central square.

CLEC attendees can participate in a Pestilence, Pandemic & Plague Tour on Friday, March 3, at 7 pm, for a unique tour of the French Quarter. Book online.

Creole Queen Mississippi River Cruises
 www.creolequeen.com/tours/jazz-cruise

The Creole Queen is an authentic paddlewheeler that takes guests on day and night cruises for a view of the Crescent City from the Mississippi River.

St. Charles Streetcar
www.neworleans.com/plan/itineraries/streetcar-itinerary/

The St. Charles Streetcar line is the oldest continuously operating streetcar line in the world, as it has been in operation since 1835. It is operated by the New Orleans Regional Transit Authority (RTA). Great for viewing old Victorian mansions on the Avenue!

Woldenberg Riverfront Park
1 Canal St, New Orleans, 70130
www.neworleans.com/listing/woldenberg-park/32771

Woldenberg Park was created in the late 1980s on land that had been occupied by old wharves and warehouses along the Mississippi Riverfront, in the upper French Quarter, first opening as a park in October 1989. It is named after philanthropist Malcolm Woldenberg (1896–1982) who helped fund its construction.

Garden District
www.neworleans.com/plan/neighborhoods/uptown-garden-district

Once favored by America’s elite, this iconic neighborhood is home to grand historic mansions, quirky indie boutiques, and beautifully cultivated gardens. The best way to travel Uptown is with a scenic ride down St. Charles Avenue. Jump on the St. Charles streetcar just a few blocks from the Hyatt Regency, and you can hop on and off at any point along the route.

Special thanks to the CLEC 2023 Host Committee for compiling this guide. We look forward to seeing you in New Orleans, March 2-4.
